

IRAQI PERSPECTIVE

Mode: Lecture

Lesson No. SRC-12-L

1. Introduction. The speaker will discuss, from An Iraqi viewpoint, the development and implementation of our national security strategy as it has impacted his country. A question and answer period following the presentation will provide students with an opportunity to discuss issues raised by the speaker.

2. Learning Objectives.

a. Analyze the current global environment with regard to US national security strategy goals and how those might be perceived by the nations in question.

b. Evaluate the mutual benefits nations receive from bilateral and multilateral goals and operations.

3. PAJE Learning Areas and Objectives. Distance Education Course Catalogue, Class of 2006, pages 11-13, Learning Area 1a-c, 2b-c, 3a-b, 4a-c, 4e, and 5a-d.

4. Student Requirements.

a. Tasks.

(1) Be prepared to participate in the question and answer session.

(2) Be prepared to briefly discuss briefly the impact of US national security strategy on the other nations of the world.

b. Required readings.

(1) Scan: LTG Abadi's biography.

(2) Review: Victory in Iraq

5. Instructional Commentary. None

6. Points to Consider.

a. What is the Iraqi perspective of US national strategy implementation?

b. How has the implementation of US national security strategy reinforced our goals of "spreading democracy around the world?"